
T-shirt designer looking for new outlets

Posted by zendrun - 2008/05/28 08:42

Edgy t-shirt new designer aiming to be the next Stussy is looking for outlets and buyers in the UK and abroad. Great eye-catching images that are already selling privately we now want to take things a step further.

Have you thought about joining as a member? We have two boutiques that are situated in Croydon and Barking plus we act as a talent scout for Topshop and ASOS.com. If you go on to ASOS.com and click independent designers you will see our sister company Fashion Enter on this site with some of our premium designers.

If you would like to know more please send emails to jenni@fashion-enter.com or emily@fashioncapital.co.uk

Regards
