How's everyone here? Hmmmm, Well. I just want to contribute something here since its my first thread (so excited about this one) I want to share this stuff i stumbled awhile ago. Does anyone here knows about the clashOrama thing? Well, I really had fun earlier watching the featured videos they have. Especially this Catwalk Crumbles video (it's about having a composure), Actually its all about the cat walk thing (you know), ramp models. Instead of doing the walk they just fall out of nowhere. But in fairness to those girls they still have the poise. ;) Hmmmm just check the video to see it for yourself :- P
