
Bag lover looking for new home for Hermes Birkin

Posted by amelialouisa08 - 2008/07/07 20:25

Hi guys,

I was given a black togo leather, authentic Hermes Birkin for my 17th birthday and am completely and utterly smitten with it. However, due to amounting student debts i may have to sell it, i say may, as i will only sell it for a reasonable price and only to someone i know will look after it.

If anyone has any serious offers please reply

CHEERS!

xoxo
