
Selling baby's ???

I'm not being a hypocrite but those celebrities would do anything to get some extra cash and we 'ordinary' people would spend cash just to see them do 'n'importe quoi' as the French say.(Sorry for the long sentence).

The new trend these days is ~~selling baby pictures~~, ~~selling naked pregnant pictures~~ and interviews announcing their pregnancy!!

Take that JamieLynn Spears for example or Christina Aguilera, Britney Spears,etc.. Privacy has gone out the window. Now it's hello world I'll give you a 'peek-a-boo' of my baby for a few million dollars.

As I said I would not be a hypocrite because I'd love to see Halle Berry's bundle of joy , but the woman wants her privacy.I respect that....I am totally against ' baby selling'!

Heck, MJ has his kids wearing masks when they are out in public. I always wondered though: Do you believe that his kids will be traumatised later on because of that?

SAY NO TO CELEBRITY BABBY SELLING

Have to agree with you here. I think its so pathetic and who are they kidding. Its like the latest fashion accessory having a baby joined to your hip. Would agencies agree to this if it was ordinary Joe Bloggs who lives in a normal two up two down house? I don't think sooooo

Quote from an online magazine :

Photographs of Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt's newborn twins are expected to fetch $\tilde{\text{A}},\text{A}\text{£}10$ million.

The Hollywood couple - whose son Knox Leon and daughter Vivienne Marcheline were born in a hospital in Nice, France, on Saturday (12.07.08) - are said to be in negotiations with various celebrity magazines for the sale of the exclusive first pictures of the babies.

Despite one magazine reportedly offering $\tilde{\text{A}},\text{A}\text{£}5.5$ million for the shots, publicist Max Clifford thinks they could be worth even more, adding: "I think the pictures could fetch $\tilde{\text{A}},\text{A}\text{£}10$ million, which would make it the biggest baby deal ever."

I was over in the States a few months setting up our USA store and our friends took us for a tour around Beverley Hills, Bel-Air, Hollywood hills etc..

It's very easy for the public AND photographers to access the celebrity homes.

Going by a celeb by celeb basis, I guess they make a decision on what is the lesser of evils.. Being followed 24-7 for a shot of a new baby, or offer a photo for a price then give the funds to charity.

I think people such as Brad & Angelina, release a few photo's for a price so the photographers quit hounding them - they are followed by photographers religiously.

Where Christina & Halle.. not so much..

We don't really buy any gossip magazines, just don't find celebrity all that interesting..

Here's some pics in our blog page of our trip of Los Angeles & hollywood, this is how close we got to the celeb homes..

Hi why don't you submit some of your blogging information to tom@fashioncapital.co.uk so we can generate more hits for free for you!!

Fashioncapital is now ranked 8th in the world on Google.co.uk for the word "fashion" - its primarily a free resource and therefore great for press and PR for you and your company!

In the case of the baby pictures - this time the Angelina and Brad's picture money is all going to an undisclosed charity. Surely this has to be admired. They could have easily have kep some of the money themselves but to denomate all the money to a deserving cause has got to be one good deed?

Regards
