I am looking to set up a suitcase and backpack business and I need to know of any manufacturers or trade sales people who could help me get my first lot together.

Hi Amy,

Why don't you try the Manufacturer's Online Showroom within the BUsiness Section on www.fashioncapital.co.uk on the left hand navigation. This is a quick and easy to use self service filter system presenting over 80 London based manufacturers. All you have to do is simply select your requirements from a given list and hit submit and a list of your manufacturing matches will appear with contact details and images of previous work carried out ready for you to contact.

Good Luck and let us know how you get on.

Kind Regards

Emily
