Hello everyone,

I don't know if you currently use trend forecasting companies to carry out your research, but if you do or are considering using one and would like to input your ideas then please fill out my quick 20 second online questionnaire to find out your preferences, as there is a new trend company coming your way very soon which is set to revolutionise the industry. Here is the link (copy and paste into your address bar), there are 10 quick and sharpe questions.

I look forward to reviewing you results.
