Hi Katty, what an amazing opportunity! My name is Simona and I am about to begin a post-grad diploma in fashion marketing and merchandising at Cavendish College in central London. I am looking for a work placement to coincide with my studies and am more than happy to work unpaid. I have previously attained a HND in Stitched Textiles and Fashion Design, BA in Fashion with Business and have just begun a web design certificate course. I have plenty of office based experience and good sewing skills.

Hi Katty

I think the position is great. I would be happy to be part of your team and help with anything. My name is Nayla Adam. I have recently worked for a jewellery company called Pebble where I was an assistant there. I did the general admin work such as typing letters, invoices, receipts. Speaking to buyers, designers, stylists and private clients. I had to help with fairs and exhibitions too in London Fashion week and small christmas fairs. I want to do something more creative for myself now and I want to learn more through work or work experience. I am looking for a challenge. I would always do my best with everything, I am hard working, very friendly and someone you can rely on. I have done a B.A Honours in Fashion and Textiles. Also have done other work experience jobs before I had the jewellery job one which included an accessories company called Lowie which involved me finishing off handmade pieces (included stitching lol). This is my first post and I realised the date seems way back, I dont know if that is correct but even if u need someone now or later please let me know. I will forward you my c.v and go from there I guess? You can email me on naylaadam@yahoo.co.uk or leiladagreat@hotmail.com the choice is yours :)

I have recently finished University. I studied BA HONS degree in Fashion Promotion. Due to financial reasons I had to leave only finishing my second year. I really enjoyed learning and hopefully in the future I would be able to finish my degree.

I have a passion for fashion and style, and a keen eye for colour and shape. I would like to progress this within the fashion industry. I am very hard working and like a challenge. I do need experience but I am a quick learning and picking things up easy. I have had a few different projects as University but there is nothing like working in the industry.

As I have a passion for fashion i like to know what going to be in season few seasons before; I do this by watching fashion shows online, and research as much as I can. Fashion is around us all day long.

Thank you
sheree Edwards

Dear Katty,

I saw your advertismment and decided to get in touch regarding the work placement opportunity available at your company. I am currently looking for a placement where I can gain experience within the Design Sector of the Fashion Industry as well as the P.R and Marketing side. I have currently completed the second year of study for B.Sc. Honours, International Fashion Marketing within the Clothing Design Technology Department at Manchester Metropolitan University. Although my course is business based I have a keen interest in the creative side of the Industry and have good craft skills that I have developed through my own textile work.

I am looking to gain as much experience within the Industry as possible and feel the position you have advertised would suit me very much.

I have tried to email you through your contact email address on your website but the emails have been sent back. If you
