Posted by sambailey - 2005/12/05 21:00

Fantastic opportunity to join one the UK's most exciting and successful retailers in a key Merchandising role. You will ideally have been at Merchandiser level for 1 - 2 years, although experienced Junior Merchandisers ready for the next step will be considered. This role requires excellent analytical and numeric skills as well as highly commercial approach and good interpersonal skills. Your background will ideally be in a fast paced retail environment and you must have experience of working in an apparel product category. You must have a strong record of acheiving commercial objectives by leading, driving and managing your team and colleagues. This company offer a fantastic working environment/culture, an extensive package and a real focus on training and development. For a confidential discussion please contact Sam Bailey on 07968 911115.
